PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 110th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

House of Representatives

February 7, 2008

Mr. Shimkus: Madam Speaker, I rise today to bring attention to the contribution of a small business in my District to granting foreign workers their certifications necessary to work in this country. CMW & Associates, a female owned and 8(a) company located in Springfield, Illinois has assisted the Department of Labor in Chicago in assuring that per Secretary Chao's directive, there is no longer a Labor Certification backlog.

Recently, Secretary Chao commended her staff at the Office of Foreign Worker Certification. "Behind every application is a person or group of people, waiting to come to our country and work in jobs for which no qualified U.S. worker can be found. The Permanent Labor Certification program is really proud about people – their hopes and their dreams of greater opportunities, and reunification with their families." Secretary Chao presented a certificate of recognition to Bill Carlson, Administrator of the Office of Foreign Labor Certification for his leadership role.

I want to recognize the Department of Labor for its exemplary work in expediting the processing of granting foreign workers their certifications necessary to work in this country, both on a permanent and temporary basis. And I want to thank Charlene Turczyn, CEO of CMW & Associates for her role in making sure America is able to obtain the skilled workforce necessary to make U.S. employers successful. As is often the case, small businesses play an integral role in the success of our government's ability to achieve its goals.
